Report description:

The combination of rising prices and economic uncertainty is curbing demand for cooking ingredients and meals in Serbia. Local consumers are acutely aware of the increase in food prices, fuel and other goods, and are equally feeling the impact of higher interest rates and supply shortages. On balance, Serbians are less optimistic about the economy with purchasing power constrained as inflation remains high in 2023. Shopping habits are evolving due to higher prices, with consumption falling in so...
