Report description:

Cooking ingredients and meals in Slovakia continues to feel the impact of rising unit prices in 2023, driving up value sales growth. As a result, Slovak consumers are becoming thriftier, allocating more of their budgets to essential expenditures such as housing and staple foods, for example. Under these market conditions, price promotions and discounts are increasingly sought after with saving money become an almost obsessive pursuit for a growing number of local consumers. The ongoing war in ne...
