Report description:

Cashless payment trends are being boosted by both government and issuer initiatives in Vietnam, along with support from retailers in various industries and channels across the country. This, in turn, is helping to boost the performance of financial cards, with debit cards seeing robust growth in 2023. Efforts made across the review period have contributed to this, and such efforts continue to herald positive effects. In June 2023, we saw the Cashless Town Festival, organised in Ho Chi Minh City,...
