Report description:

2023 is witnessing a continuation of some of the key trends from the previous year. Credit card spend remains significant in 2023, despite seeing a marginal decline compared to 2022, and this is largely due to the rising cost of living experienced by Australians as a result of higher interest rates and inflation. Consumers had started shifting away from credit cards prior to 2022, with Australians becoming increasingly debt averse over the years. However, many of them have been forced to rely on...
