Report description:

Sales of ready meals are declining in retail volume terms in 2023, with people returning to their normal routines and spending more time outside of the home thanks to the lifting of COVID-19 restrictions. This is seeing a shift back towards foodservice channels for some consumption occasions, with Colombians turning to cheaper complete meals in times of high inflation. As such, demand for products like ready meals is dampened. Ready meals are niche in Colombia and consumers remain more intereste...
