Report description:

In 2023, the meals and soups category showed sales growth in volume and value terms, spurred by the return to normal lifestyles post-pandemic and the return of employees to the workplace. The general increase in the number of working women in Uzbekistan is also driving demand in the ready meals category, as urban consumers spend less time in the kitchen. However, it should be noted that this growth is coming from a very small sales base. The vast majority of local consumers are very unfamiliar w...
