Report description:

The consumption of processed fruit and vegetables in Bulgaria increased slightly in 2023, mainly due to the growing need for convenience amid busier lifestyles and rising urbanization. Furthermore, the growing number of people living alone is driving demand for simplified eating and cooking solutions. Current value sales remained upbeat in 2023, and although inflation is falling, retail prices still remain at a high level. Fruit prices have risen due to more expensive irrigation and have become...
