Report description:

In 2023, similar retail volume and current value growth rates are expected for processed meat, seafood and alternatives to meat compared with 2021, after seeing a stronger performance in 2022. COVID-19 restrictions were lifted from the beginning of the year, and consumers have therefore been spending less time at home, while foodservice has also resumed, thus leading to a slowdown in retail growth in the category. Meanwhile, many consumers had become tired of home cooking and were keen to dine o...
