Report description:

Amid adverse economic conditions, rice, pasta and noodles registered a decline in volume terms in 2023. In particular, relatively high inflation and fuel price hikes limited consumer spending power while unit prices across all brands accelerated. The average unit price for rice, pasta and noodles increased by 30% in 2023, following a 40% increase in 2022. Despite the fact that products within this category are generally considered to be essential, local consumers gravitated towards unbranded/unp...
