Report description:

Retail volume sales of sauces, dips and condiments were static in 2023, following a slight decline in the previous year. Value sales rose in 2023 due to increases in unit price, although current value growth was not as high as in 2022. Due to innovation and gastronomic trends favouring recipes from around the world at the expense of traditional local dishes, demand for sauces was more dynamic than demand for cooking ingredients and condiments. Many Belgian consumers are now consuming and cooking...
