Report description:

The ongoing war in Ukraine created a number of challenges in 2023. In particular, there was a shortage of critical packaging materials, such as glass and aluminium. Extreme weather conditions placed further pressure on supply chains, with scarcities of certain ingredients, such as tomatoes and olives. These factors, when added to increased energy costs, led to a hike in unit prices, even in case of private labels. With regard to tomato and olive-based products, numerous brands saw a temporary ha...
