Report description:

Inflation continues to have an impact on sauces, dips and condiments in 2023. While there is expected to be double-digit current value growth, constant value growth is expected to be minimal, with inflation cutting into profit margins. Volume growth is also expected to be minimal. With consumers being increasingly price sensitive, there is a degree of trading down. For instance, the high price of tomatoes is pushing up the price of products such as tomato pastes and pasta sauces and premium bran...
