Report description:

Cooking at home became more popular over the lockdown period, with some people using the time stuck at home to learn to cook, or to develop their cooking skills. This resulted in soaring sales of sauces, dips and condiments in 2020. Since the end of the pandemic sales have gradually stabilised with some people returning to visiting foodservice outlets although this is usually only for an occasional treat with people still preparing and eating the majority of their meals at home. For example, the...
