Report description:

Demand for sauces, dips and condiments fell over the course of 2023, the second consecutive year of retail volume sales declines in the category. The main reason for the lacklustre performance seen in the category during the year is the return to normal levels of volume sales after a huge spike was seen in demand for a wide range of sauces, dips and condiments at the peak of the COVID-19 pandemic during 2020. With demand under pressure, key category players have looked to innovation and new prod...
