Report description:

2023 saw sauces, dips and condiments subject to a complex matrix of different trends, some of which derived from the ongoing war in Ukraine, while others were simply a reflection of the general consumer trends that were in effect before the onset of armed conflict. In addition to the significant disruptions that was caused to supply chains and logistics networks, high inflation has also undermined demand across all categories of sauces, dips and condiments as the exchange value of the hryvnia ha...
