Report description:

In 2023, the Polish government implemented new regulations aimed at supporting bakeries and pastry shops amid escalating gas prices. Effective from April 7, these regulations broadened the eligibility criteria for purchasing gas at a regulated price of PLN200.17 per MWh. This extended benefit now includes entities engaged in the production of bread, fresh pastry products, and cookies. In addition, entrepreneurs with bread and confectionery production accounting for over 50% of their revenue also...
