Report description:

Chocolate spreads and jams and preserves are set to post negative results in retail volume terms for a third consecutive year in 2023. This is partly due to rising health-consciousness in Croatia, as these product types are typically high in sugar. Given that they are traditionally most popular among families with young children, the long-term trend of falling birth rates in the country has also continued to undermine demand. Additionally, due to the soaring cost of sugar on global commodity mar...
