Report description:

Sales of honey have continued to decline in 2023 in retail volume terms. This decline has mainly been seen in sales of larger jars (over 400g), which represent the largest share of the market. Smaller pack sizes (less than 400g) and single formats have been less affected. Single portion packs are also a favourite format of Italians. These smaller formats are convenient and help to reduce food waste while also being more affordable. Larger formats often represent a more economical option in the l...
