Report description:

Chocolate spreads maintained its growth in 2023, in contrast to other categories within sweet spreads, which registered high growth rates during the COVID-19 crisis, but then saw sales fall away as life returned to normal and people started going back to out of home activities, including eating away from home more often. A tendency towards indulgence, to compensate for lost time and the problems experienced during the pandemic, can explain this sustained growth, which occurred even in a scenario...
