Report description:

Honey is experiencing a surge in demand in Tunisia in 2023, with volume sales recording double-digit growth in the year. This performance can be attributed to a new strategy adopted by local companies, who have shifted from selling unpackaged honey to focusing on packaging and branding their honey products. To promote their offerings, advertising campaigns on platforms like TikTok, Instagram, and Facebook have been launched, effectively reaching and engaging with a wide audience. Furthermore, ho...
