Report description:

In 2022, sustainability became a major priority for brands and manufacturers. This is encouraged not only by consumers' demands but reinforced by regulations and taxes on the use of non-recyclable plastic. As such, manufacturers are putting all their efforts into reducing the use of plastic in packaging, moving towards mono-material options. According to Instituto Tecnológico de Product Infantil y Ocio (AIJU), the vast majority of consumers in Europe consider a sustainable toy when it is either...
