Report description:

Many local consumers prefer to make frequent small purchases, such as apparel accessories, in order to stylise their look without having to spend on larger, more expensive items of apparel, or at least delay their purchase. This behaviour is especially visible at times of high inflation and unstable economic conditions, such as at the end of the review period in Turkey. There was some divergence in terms of retail volume growth performances in apparel accessories towards the end of the review pe...
