Report description:

Baked goods sales continue rising in Algeria in 2023, with bread as an essential source of starchy carbohydrates set to underpin a solid and sustainable market size for baked goods overall. However, Algeria continues to witness severe economic hardship in 2023, further exacerbated by the international crisis driven by the war in Ukraine. This is leading to surging inflation and volatility of the local currency, resulting in declining consumer purchasing power. As such, baked goods is recording w...
