Report description:

Retail sales of hosiery saw minimal growth in constant value terms in 2023. This was partly due to the high cost of living, in the context of elevated inflation and rising interest rates, which led a significant number of local consumers to trade down from branded ranges to cheaper, private label offerings. Unusually hot summer temperatures also had a negative impact on demand, with local consumers wearing hosiery less frequently. These factors affected both sheer and non-sheer hosiery, although...
