Report description:

The impact of hikes in production and transport costs is leading to price increases across menswear in Greece, which was visible in mid-2022 and continues to influence category performance in 2023. Amid the cost of living crisis, which is taking its toll upon consumer purchasing power, volume sales of menswear products considered non-essential have declined, while current value sales have increased. Nevertheless, to some degree, growth in the latter has been moderated by discounting activities a...
