Report description:

As with the overall performance of apparel and footwear, menswear has seen volume sales decline in 2023, while current value growth has slowed but remains positive due to inflation and rising unit prices. This follows two years of growth thanks to a return to in-store shopping and social events post-pandemic. In 2022, the increase in weddings, business and other social events boosted demand for semi-formal and formal attire, including suits, shirts and ties. These items are purchased with less f...
