Report description:

Shelf-stable vegetables continue to account for most volume sales. The launch of several new local brands has also introduced competition into the segment. These are Stifen, Navara and Greeno. In addition, the range of vegetables on offer is increasing, with artichokes seeing healthy volume growth. There is also a shift from traditional aluminium cans to glass jars, reflecting the industry's response to evolving consumer preferences and the desire for more eco-friendly and sustainable packaging...
