Report description:

In 2023, processed meat, seafood and alternatives to meat in Latvia is recording a rise in volume sales, despite economic uncertainties and health concerns, particularly regarding smoked meat products. Nonetheless, after a phase of post-pandemic normalisation in 2021, the category faced significant price inflation in 2022 and 2023. This inflation, coupled with falling disposable incomes and increasing living costs, has led consumers to prioritise more affordable food options. Despite these chall...
