Report description:

Rice, pasta and noodles is registering moderate retail volume growth in 2023 thanks to the stable performance of rice and pasta. Retail volume sales of noodles, meanwhile, are recording marginal decline due to reduced demand for plain noodles as consumers tend to make less soup. As a result of rising unit prices amidst rampant food inflation and the continued premiumisation of the pasta and rice categories, value sales achieve strong double-digit growth in the year.

Euromonitor International's Rice, Pasta and Noodles in North Macedonia report offers in-depth knowledge of the market at a national level, providing local insight and understanding unavailable elsewhere. In addition to the latest retail sales data 2018-2022, it identifies the leading companies, brands and retail outlets, and assesses the key trends and demographic shifts behind consumer demand and sales growth.
