Report description:

Rice is a key staple in Pakistan and in 2023 is expected to register healthy volume growth, as its affordability, as well as continuing population growth support volume sales. Local farmers are also in a position to supply local demand and this keeps prices lower. Rice yields also continue to improve, as farmers plant higher-yielding hybrid rice varieties, improves agronomic practices and increase planting areas, as farmers shift out of cotton. That being paid, price rises are still significant...
