Report description:

Soft drinks has continued to see healthy growth in retail volume and current value terms in 2023. Sales have been supported by consumers returning to their old consumption habits now that the pandemic is over. Although sales have seen steady growth in retail volume terms, growth has been stronger in value terms with this being due to the significant price increase that have impacted most soft drinks. This is due to rising manufacturing costs and the elevated inflation that has continued to affec...
