Report description:

The energy crisis and high inflation continues to impact staple foods in 2023. Consumers are trying to save money either by reducing the amount of products they buy or switching to more affordable options, including private label. Retailers are already well established in staple foods with discounter Lidl ranking as the overall category leader in 2023. The switch to private label is more pronounced in the pasta category, which has gained popularity among Greek consumers. Brands are competing aga...
