Report description:

The high inflation that swept through Europe during 2022 and 2023 led to significant price increases across all categories of womenswear. Initially, the steep price increases that flowed from high inflation put downward pressure on demand for womenswear. However, by the end of 2023, Hungarian consumers has become accustomed to high and rising prices across a variety of consumer goods industry these and this led to a tolerance higher prices across all categories of womenswear. Over the course of...
