Report description:

Steep unit price increases of bread and the rising demand for convenience have driven growth in frozen baked products in 2023. Consumers are increasingly opting for frozen baked goods which have a longer shelf life and allow them to have fresh bread or pastries at any time. Whilst frozen baked goods are more expensive, they prevent unnecessary food waste, plus larger quantities can be bought to store at home and consume when needed, which is hugely attractive to busy urban consumers who have less...
