Report description:

While coffee is expected to register double-digit current value growth, volume sales are expected to fall marginally. A couple of factors are expected to lead to the slight volume decline. Continuing price rises dampen volume sales, as does continuing population decline. In addition, coffee is a very mature sector and there is little room for further growth, in particular for the most popular product, which is fresh ground coffee. On the other hand, volume growth is healthy through foodservice c...
