Report description:

Demand for eggs continues to grow in the United Arab Emirates, despite further price increases. In the first quarter of 2023, the government approved a temporary hike in the average unit price of eggs by a maximum of 13%. This was approved due to the higher production costs incurred by suppliers. However, strong fines were imposed for cases where prices flouted this price increase cap. Despite ongoing rises in the average unit price, demand for eggs has continued to grow during the year, support...
