Report description:

Microwaves saw a positive impact on its volume sales in the first two years of the pandemic, in 2020 and 2021. This was the period with the most home seclusion, when people needed to cook and eat at home more frequently. Cooking from scratch, warming cooked food (naka-shoku or sozai), or microwaving frozen food; a microwave is considered a must-have for any household with any type of cooking pattern. As the opportunities for cooking and/or eating at home increased during this period, demand natu...
