Report description:

Sports drinks is suffering from cross-category factors which are placing downwards pressure on soft drinks sales overall, leading to a strong off-trade volume slump. To start with, sports drinks is a non-essential category, with products comparatively expensive to start with, so price rises due to inflationary pressures have been a notable deterrent to sales. Furthermore, larger formats (e.g., 1litre and 1.5litres) have especially suffered from price hikes, contrasting with the fact that larger...
