Report description:

Childrenswear in Germany is expected to continue to see current value growth in 2023, given the high inflation rate and resultant price increases. Nevertheless, volume sales are set to decline, reflecting the cost-of-living crisis and low consumer confidence. Girls' apparel is anticipated to register the slowest volume decline, which can be explained by the return to school and a revived interest in renewing girls' wardrobes. It is also finally possible to socialise and engage in birthday parties...
