Report description:

A continued fall in retail volume sales was noted in 2023, following a spike in sales noted during home seclusion and COVID-19. In addition, following the lifting of restrictions, household spending priorities have shifted away from appliances to services and experiences, leading to lower purchases of new appliances. Added to these factors is the trend towards multifunctionality.

Multifunctionality offers consumers cost savings by negating the need to purchase separate appliances - a downward pr...
