Report description:

Home laundry appliances saw a decrease in retail sales volumes in 2023, representing something of a return to normalised sales levels following the impact of the COVID-19 crisis, which brought forward volume sales in 2020 and 2021. However, the fall in volumes was exacerbated by the challenging economic environment, with higher interest rates, cost of living pressures, and weakening consumer sentiment having an adverse effect on demand for home laundry appliances. With households being cautious...
