Report description:

Guatemala's economic challenges have been exacerbated by high inflation levels in recent years, with locals becoming more price sensitive as a result. In 2023, Guatemala also experienced political upheaval, as the progressive Bernardo Arévalo was elected president, followed by attempts to discredit the electoral process among branches of the outgoing government. Hot drinks continued to be impacted by inflationary pressures in 2023, although to a lesser extent than the previous year. Guatemalans,...
