Report description:

Entering 2023, the easing of COVID-19 restrictions boosted consumer confidence instantly, as people were able to travel with peace of mind, without the fear of being put into arbitrary lockdowns. However, the prospects for the housing market have remained bleak, as major developers, including China Evergrande and Country Garden, are reported to have defaulted on their debts and are having trouble delivering their housing projects. House prices are also declining, as disposable incomes have been...
