Report description:

Soft drinks continues to be affected by inflationary pressures in 2023, which prices continuing to rise, but at a slower pace. This had a notable impact on shopping behaviour, with consumers more cautious about their purchases, especially those in lower income demographics. In soft drinks, consumers have been regularly seeking out discounts, promotions or multipack offers. However, even as soft drink prices continued to rise, the category has remained resilient, with retail volume sales continui...
