Report description:

Political and economic repercussions, such as regional conflicts, inflation, and currency depreciation, resulting from the 2021 coup have cast a shadow on Myanmar's staple foods in 2023. Retail prices have persistently surged across various categories, including baked goods, rice, and noodles, driven by escalating costs of agricultural crops like rice and wheat. As a result of all of these factors, the economic backdrop in Myanmar has become very unstable and many consumers are now having to eco...
