Report description:

Amid the constraints imposed by the impacts of the pandemic, rising inflation, the devaluation of the Brazilian real against the US dollar, and successive restrictions in various global supply chains, players have had to concentrate their efforts on navigating this turbulent period. In 2022, they began their investment processes, either by launching new products, product lines, or marketing campaigns to ensure the strength of their flagship brands. In chocolate spreads, Ferrero's Nutella has exp...
