Report description:

In 2022, vacuum cleaners experienced disruption, with retail volume sales experiencing a decline. This was primarily due to the resurgence of COVID-19, which had a negative impact on production and delivery. However, following the end of the pandemic and the full reopening in 2023, production and logistics have returned to normal, and retail volume sales of vacuum cleaners are set to record single-digit growth. However, amongst categories, traditional and single-function vacuum cleaners, such as...
