Report description:

In 2023, nectars continued to exhibit a decline in retail volume growth, acting as a hindrance to the overall development of the juice category. This downward trend can be attributed to the high sugar content present in these products, which clashed with consumers' increasing preference for foods and drinks with reduced sugar levels and enhanced health benefits. Additionally, the notable escalation in the unit price of nectar products has dampened demand, particularly as juices have a higher fru...
