Report description:

The soft drinks landscape in Romania recorded stagnate retail volume sales in 2023, with a similar performance to 2022. The main factors negatively impacting sales included rising inflation, the increased cost of raw materials and declining disposable incomes; all of which led consumers to become more cautious in their spending, readjusting their budgets to focus on essentials. Rising unit prices resulted from inflation and governmental measures, as the Romanian authorities increased VAT from 9%...
