Report description:

Soft drinks in Taiwan showed a solid performance in 2023, with growth in total volume sales equalling that recorded in 2022. Overall demand remained buoyant as diminishing fear of COVID-19 and the ending of associated restrictions saw more people to go back to the office and spend increasing amounts of their leisure time outside the home. Due to the important role impulse and on-the-go purchases traditionally play at the retail level, the resumption of pre-pandemic routines was especially influe...
